

AUSTRALIAN PROFESSIONAL RODEO ASSOCIATION.

COMPETITION BOARD DIRECTOR'S

JOB DESCRIPTION.

An APRA Competition Board Event Director will:

- Act in a professional manner at all times and represent the APRA to the highest principles and rules of the Association.
- Provide advice and guidance on APRA rules and Rodeo in general to all competitors, officials and any person acting in an employed or voluntary capacity at a Rodeo.
- Promote and represent the APRA and Rodeo in general in public and in any media outlet.
- Enforce the APRA event rules applicable to their representative event in a polite but firm manner.
- Assist in the promotion of the Association's monthly news sheet publication by providing editorial comment on a rotational basis or when requested by the Office Manager.
- Liaise and advise with Judges, when necessary and when requested, on APRA rules, Work Health and Safety issues and Animal Welfare matters. NOTE: Judges decision is final.
- Be available to assist and advise Judges on any issue regarding any of the above.
- Report any breaches of the APRA code of conduct, rules, WHS issues or Animal Welfare to the Competition Board of Directors for appropriate consideration and action in writing and signed.
- Make recommendations to the Competition Board of Directors on applications, depending on their event, for persons to act in an official capacity at a Rodeo. Eg; Protections Clowns, Pick Up Men, Stock Contractors OR for such persons to be removed from the APRA list of such persons.

- Encourage, mentor and foster young competitors.
- Liaise with Rodeo committees and provide advice and guidance on APRA sanctioned Rodeos, including the avoiding of date clashes.
- Represent the APRA in the general area and State in which they reside with a view to encouraging the growth of APRA sanctioned Rodeos.
- Promote and assist with APRA State Circuit when requested.
- Assist the APRA Officer staff with queries and general issues relating to their event when requested.
- Provide assistance to Stock Contractors and Rodeo Committees where there is a shortage of numbers in their event with a view to increasing those competitor numbers.
- At all times maintain the traditions and history of the APRA in a positive and professional manner.
- Before the competition starts inspect stock and ensure all stock health and sound.
- Where there is a dispute on a judge's decision Directors should liaise with judge to ensure correct decision made and judges decision final.