DAVE WORSFOLD RETIRES

AUSTRALIAN PROFESSIONAL RODEO ASSOCIATION

FROM THE COMPETITION BOARD

So far the 2024 season is looking bright. We started our year right with Tumbarumba rodeo on New Years Day attracting massive entries, with a standout of 38 competitors in the open Saddle Bronc Riding. Tumbarumba rodeo welcomed six different rodeo stock contractors to the town, with Steve Condell, Gill Brothers, McPhee Rodeo Co, Tumut Rodeo Club, Tumbarumba Rodeo Club and Destiny Downs Cattle Co all supplying stock. A special mention to Tumbarumba Rodeo Club's 'Hill Top Hustler' coming away with the Paul Doughty Memorial trophy halter for winning the 'best bucking horse of the day.'

It's great to see bronc riding in Australia thriving! I think that is largely part to do with the great rough stock schools being held and made available to young fellas wanting to learn. There have been 4 schools ran in the last couple of months, with over 90 different students attending. Congratulations to everyone involved in making these schools happen! Also, a special thanks to Xtreme Broncs Australia for their continued support of the APRA, for helping the sport of Saddle Bronc riding grow and prosper, and for shining a light on our Aussie talent.

Congratulations to Rick Knudsen and his outstanding bucking horse 'Cherokee Mountain' for being voted by the qualifiers as the rankest horse of the APRA NFR. And lastly, I would like to welcome our newly appointed Bull Riding director, Rhys Angland, to the APRA Competition Board.

Thank you to all the competitors, stock contractors and committees for supporting the APRA rodeos. Without you all we have no rodeos. Please don't hesitate to contact any of our directors with issues or new ideas. We are the voice of the competitors and will do our best to support you.

Goodluck and safe travels!

FROM HEAD OFFICE

As we approach our busy Easter run, I just wanted to point out a few tips for committees filling in rodeo applications.

It is important to submit your application forms as soon as possible to allow time to process your application and get them advertised in the Rodeo News and the website. It is also important to have made your decisions in regard to prize money and events being run to allow for accurate advertising.

Judging Clinics

Judging clinics, upskilling our current judges and enlisting new judges, continues to be at the forefront of the Competition and Executive Boards' agendas.

We encourage anyone with judging interests to read the Judging Course that is linked on the APRA website and enquire about sitting a judging test to become fully accredited.

The next judging clinic is being held in Ulverstone at the Ulverstone Equine Centre, March 3rd. For further information please contact Tracy King on 0400 917 417.

NFR BRONC AWARDS

Upon completion of the 2023 APRA NFR, qualifiers in the Saddle Bronc and Bareback Riding voted on and supplied trophy halters for 'Rankest Horse of the NFR' in both events.

Rick Knudsen's 'Cherokee Mountain' was awarded the halter from the saddle bronc riders, while 'Blue Moon Rising' of Gill Bros was the cowboys' pick for the bareback riders.

Congratulations to both of these horses, owners and their connections.

A CAREER TO REMEMBER

DAVE WORSFOLD

“I’D LIKE TO THINK THAT PEOPLE
THOUGHT I RODE PRETTY GOOD, THAT I
WAS SUCCESSFUL AT IT. AND THAT I HELPED THE YOUNGER FELLAS.”

Dave Worsfold

A CAREER TO REMEMBER DAVE WORSFOLD

Dave Worsfold has tipped his hat and hung up his bareback riding riggin. The 4 times Australian Champion and world class cowboy has been nodding his head on bareback bucking horses for 22 years. A feat that any normal man's body would shudder at. From the Wandoan boy climbing on his first bucking horse as a teenager, to Calgary, Cheyenne, Pendleton, almost Las Vegas and back, Dave has tasted success on some of the biggest cowboy stages. He's won in arenas that so many have only dreamed of just nodding their heads in. But if you ask him, he'll play it down. "I'm not one for bragging" he told me some years ago. Nothing has changed.

That's just Dave Worsfold for you, quietly spoken and painfully humble. Never a man to make too much of a fuss about himself, Dave has always done most of his talking with his spurs. And in a fashion we've all become accustomed to from the Queensland grazer, he rode Gill Bros' 'Jewel' to 82 points in the final round of the 2023 APRA national finals rodeo, quietly tipped his hat and unassumingly closed the book on what was one of the greatest bareback riding careers Australia has seen. "I always wanted to pull up on my terms, when I was still at the top and riding good,"

He'd ventured into rodeoing the same way many do, starting out on junior steers and dabbling in the bull riding. But as a young kid who had always been around horses and grown up on the land, bareback riding appealed to Dave. "They used to have practice sessions at The Great Western Hotel in Rockhampton. One day they run some horses up and a few of us just got on to have a go for fun. I liked it right from that very first time." While the adrenaline rush had him hooked right from the beginning, Dave admits what most of us would assume. "It was pretty painful at the start."

"The more I got on the easier it came to me." The guidance of older cowboys Brad Howe, Shane O'Brian and Darryl Doyle set Dave up for rodeo success. "They got me started." But it was the overseas experience of riding bucking horses in the PRCA that really gave him (and everybody else) a taste of how good he could be. Some big moments early in his career are still among Dave's favourite bareback riding memories. "As a younger fella, I went to Calgary and won the novice there. I always think back to that. And cracking 90 for the first time." That said 90-point ride was aboard 'Assault,' the famed bronc from Rafter G Rodeo's string, who also retired recently. Seems rather fitting.

TRY HARD.
DONT QUIT.

Fast forward several decades, Dave is still adamant "the adrenaline always outweighs the pain," but the time seemed right to hang it up. In his opinion, "taking a beating and then getting on another one, the physical aspect," is the hardest part of bareback riding. And although he's been relatively lucky, with minimal injuries throughout his career, it was getting harder to bounce back after each weekend. He already knows he's going to miss "the fun of it, the adrenaline rush. And my mates." But he's looking forward. One of the most dedicated and committed athletes to grace rodeo, Dave is ready to switch the focus to his kids. The dedicated father's retirement plan involves "dialing back the fitness program, watching the girls barrel race and maybe going to a few campdrafts."

Dave Worsfold changed the sport of bareback riding in Australia. He raised the bar. His drive, dedication, commitment and desire to hone his craft has long been admired in rodeo circles. He has set the standard for bareback riding going forward. And to those cowboys of the future, "I wish I had of gone to more schools and learnt off of more people from the very start. Try and learn from the right fellas. Try hard. And don't quit!"

A CAREER TO REMEMBER BEHIND THE BUCKING CHUTES

A FEW WORDS FROM DAVE'S PEERS.

"Dave set the bar at the highest level as a bareback rider and as a person. He rode as correct as they come. He made the hard ones look easy and stayed on as consistent as anyone. The amount of animals and longevity of his career speaks volumes to his amazing consistency. Dave is a great bareback rider and a great man."

"GREAT MAN." WILL LOWE

"I don't know an individual who has put as much effort into an event as Dave has bareback riding. To do what he has done, he's an absolute athlete. He was as good as anyone in the world."

"AN ABSOLUTE ATHLETE."

TOM DURBRIDGE

"It was a great honour to compete against Dave. In my eyes he is the best and most fundamentally correct bareback rider to come out of Australia. He rode them buckers outstanding! I wish him and his family the best with their future lives."

"THE BEST!"
JAMIE HOWLETT

"He is just as good of a guy as he is competitor. First class."

"FIRST CLASS."
CHIP DEES

"The only way to beat Dave was to try and outdraw him! Dave is probably the best ambassador we've ever seen in Australia for bareback riding. Be like Dave!"

"BE LIKE DAVE!"
FRED OSMAN

"One of the most consistent bareback riders I've seen. His dedication to the sport of bareback riding is truly inspiring. He is the most humble person there is. A champion inside and outside of the arena! I'm thankful to call Dave a close mate of mine and I wish him all the best."

"TRULY INSPIRING."
JARROD MCKANE

"FIERCELY COMPETITIVE."
BEN HALL

"Dave raised the bar in bareback riding to a new level in Australia. If an Australian title came down to the last round, it wouldn't just be Dave's ability that would get him over the line, it would be his fiercely competitive nature. His success stems from his commitment to the sport and his fitness."

LOUD AND PROUD

17.54 seconds to clock the fastest time of the whole rodeo and win Round 3 of the 2023 APRA.

Morns Akka Dakka Roc just keeps showing up and loves what he does! He's absolutely rock solid. This was his second consecutive year to take out every award there was for the end of the year in barrel racing.

I love my custom made Double J belt. It helps me show off my very special 2022 Barrel Racing gold buckle which is one that I fought for years to strap on. Hard work pays off!

The only thing not quite right in this picture is his noseband has ridden down. I'll be conscious to adjust it to ensure it doesn't cause him discomfort in the future.

I am riding in my Double J Feather Weight saddle which is made with the spinal relief system to keep Akka comfortable after he endured kissing spine surgery.

Black boots and a black saddle pad have become Akka's trademark style. They're easy to keep clean and they always match with whichever of my Cinch shirts I chose to wear.

"I was early out in this round & young Adanni Walker was hot on my tail. I knew I had to try win the round."

BEHIND THE BRAND SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT

Terry Donohue

Just Country Australia & Ariat Australia

Ariat Australia has been a phenomenal supporter of professional rodeo in Australia. They provide sponsorship and support at every level, from the National Finals rodeo to singular rodeos and committees to individual cowboys and cowgirls. Just Country Australia is the Australian distributor for Ariat and Managing Director, Terry Donohue, acknowledges that such generosity is important to his company. "We have always adopted a give back policy to rural Australia in the form of sponsorships, donations, mental health, drought and flood relief, this support ranges into the millions of dollars every single year. Our commitment to the sports and people of rural Australia is our most engrained value in all our staff's values."

Just Country started out in 1993 with 2 employees. 18mths into the new venture, Ariat was added to their brand management portfolio. Over 30 years later, the company has grown to employing over 135 staff all over Australia and continues to enable the people of Australia to access the quality and reliable products that Ariat produce. "It has been a great synergy between the brands, and we look forward to many more years together."

A Boulia boy, Terry was well and truly born and raised in the bush and is no stranger to rural life and it's demands. "I grew up in far southwestern Queensland. Although I live in the city now, my love of the bush, it's people and characters and the sports that they love will always be part of me. I'm just so grateful that my business still allows me to be involved in the rural lifestyle."

A full-page photograph of a cowboy riding a bucking horse. The horse is a light-colored, possibly palomino or buckskin, and is captured in mid-air, bucking its hindquarters. The rider is wearing a blue and red plaid shirt, blue jeans, a tan cowboy hat, and a blue wristband. He is holding the reins with his left hand and has his right arm raised in the air. The background is dark and out of focus, showing some spectators and arena structures.
