News from the Office.....

Hello from the office!

My name's Melinda Walker, and I am the new Business Manager based in the Warwick Head Office. It has been a busy introduction to the world of Rodeo with the Northern Run and NFR approaching rapidly. I am enjoying learning more about rodeo and the business side of looking after our members. A little about me, I've lived in Warwick for the past 20 years and for the past 8 years I worked for a local Stock & Station Agency doing livestock accounts. A regular spectator at the Warwick Rodeo, with my favorite event being the bar!

Memberships are due for the 2023/2024 Season on the 1st October - if you are renewing your membership with a direct deposit into our Bank Account, please use your name and membership number as a reference, so we know who it's from.

Our Affiliate numbers continue to grow with Forbes, Injune, Collinsville and Pittsworth Rodeo committees amongst our new affiliates. It's great to be collaborating with new committees and to share advantages of affiliating with APRA. We can assist with insurance, provide complete committee packs to help your event run smoothly and we are available through the week for any questions or to provide any assistance.

A reminder for committees that we are now sending committee packs electronically. With Australia Post time frames, it is much faster for packs to come via email. It also means you can print extra sheets if you need or if they go walkabout.

We are endeavouring to keep a tight timeframe for posting prize money and standings, so email return of committee paperwork is greatly appreciated. It also means there is an additional copy of rodeo paperwork in case Australia Post loses mail.

Important Dates

- AGM Submissions/nominations are due by Monday 11th September.
- NFR Entries are now being accepted – closing date is Friday 29th September.
- 2024 Season Memberships are from Sunday 1st October

I look forward to working with everyone, feel free to give me a call in the office and introduce yourself.

Melinda Walker
Business Manager

MIGHTY MOUNT ISA

A LEGENDARY RODEO

STRAP IN FOR WHAT IS THE FAMOUS MOUNT ISA MINES RODEO

Outback Queensland has a knack for producing stand out rodeos and there are none finer than the mighty Mount Isa Rodeo. Backed by years of prestige and phenomenal prizemoney, Mount Isa is the rodeo every cowboy and cowgirl wants to win. This year saw a healthy mix of repeat winners, Australian champions dominating and fresh faces claiming their first taste of victory on a big stage.

Jane Ryan made it her second win in the famous arena, in a hotly contested Ladies Breakaway Roping. Her average time of 6.95seconds edged her in front of Moonbi roper Lauren Smith by merely 0.1 seconds. While current Australian champion Leanne Caban and her standout gelding Akka Dakka dominated in the Ladies Barrel Racing. A strong performance by Leanne in the Ladies Breakaway Roping also saw her sashed as the Allround Cowgirl.

It was the young guns who shined the brightest in the Rope and Tie, with Tamworth's Logan Penfold taking home the coveted buckle, holding at bay all round sensation Toby Hale and Shane Iker.

AS THE DUST SETTLES

ON A ONE OF A KIND RODEO.

The 2023 Team Roping buckles will also find themselves at home in the Tamworth region, with Ben Smith and Kai Clark proving why they're the current Australian Champions, winning by a clear margin 1.5 seconds faster than anybody else.

Jarrod McKane was the only cowboy to back up his win from the previous week at the Curry Merry Muster and he now finds himself in the heat of a Pro Tour title race with second placegetter Brendan Crawley. Victorian David Stacey proved too good for the Saddle Bronc Riding field, convincingly winning the blue ribbon from Queensland's Jordan Iker and Lachie Sheppard.

A Mount Isa rodeo win can boost your career and put you on the cowboy map so to speak. Fresh faces Boston Leather and William Sloan both made a name for themselves with standout performances and the biggest wins of their careers. William Sloan held off experienced cowboys and a pack of young enthusiastic steer wrestlers to claim victory. At the other end of the arena, Boston Leather made his maiden trip to Mount Isa more than memorable. He rode his short go bull in sticky fashion in front of a packed Saturday night stadium making him the only cowboy to ride all three bulls and the winner of the feature Bull Ride.

Season standout Toby Hale wrapped up the winners, claiming the Allround Cowboy buckle, as the northern run of rodeos begins to wind down and the race to see who is crowned Pro Tour winners ramps up.

ELITE FINISH

NORTH QUEENSLAND ELITE RODEO 2023

From outback dust in the northwest to the coastal beaches, the 'northern run' of APRA rodeos takes competitors on a diverse road trip of some of Queensland's most spectacular tourism destinations. The season changing and standings shaking run of rodeos fittingly wound down with 2 days of action at the Elite Rodeo stadium near Townsville.

Wendy Caban had had a consistent northern run, gathering cheques in the barrel race at Cloncurry and Mount Isa as well as adding a round placing in the breakaway at Mount Isa. However, she saved her best performance for last, pulling off the daily double by winning both the Ladies Barrel Race and the Ladies Breakaway Roping for a total payout of $6482 at North Queensland's Elite rodeo.

From opposite ends of Australia, Clancy Middleton of Hughenden QLD paired up with Glen Perkins of Mount Egerton Vic, to capture the team roping win from Emerald team, Angela Simpson and Tyler Kenny. The Rope and Tie master, Shane Kenny, proved why he is Australia's most decorated cowboy, besting everyone for yet another win in his signature event. While Jace Land, fresh home from a USA stint, was too good for the rest of the field in the Steer Wrestling.

RODEO

SPECIAL APPEARANCE

Ross Ford owned bucking horse, Out Of Pearl, helped Michael Johnston and Tristan Braden to first and second in the Saddle Bronc Riding respectively. Richmond cowboy, Deon Lane, made the straight trip along the Flinders Hwy and straight to the pay window after holding off veteran cowboy Dave Worsfold to win the Bareback Riding. The bulls beat most of the cowboys in the Open Bull Ride, with Victorian Sam Woodall claiming victory over the only other scorer Cameron Southern.

With the 'northern run' of rodeos winding down the action moves onto Capella rodeo this weekend. The race to secure a top 15 standings finish and book a National Finals Rodeo qualification is on for many cowboys and cowgirls and things will come right down to the end of the regular season on September 30th.
